In her role as Policy Assistant, Kezia Ofosu Atta will support Groundwork Ohio's mission to ensure that every child has the best chance for lifelong success. As part of her work, she will foster relationships with policy professionals and advocates to build a solid network to fight for children and their caregivers.

Before joining Groundwork Ohio, Kezia served in various roles in the Ohio Senate as one of the Ohio Legislative Service Commission's Legislative Fellows in 2021. She then served as one of the Senior Legislative Aides to former Senate Minority Leader Kenny Yuko from August 2021 to August 2022. In these roles, she gained practical experience in the legislative process, including conducting legislative research, drafting talking points and speeches, and engaging in constituent outreach.

Kezia is pursuing her Master's in Public Administration at The Ohio State University's Glenn College of Public Affairs. In the first semester of her Master's program, she spent time teaching 7th and 8th grade Social Studies at a local charter school.

At 13, Kezia migrated from Kumasi, Ghana, to Columbus, Ohio, and has resided here ever since. She boasts of being a true Ohioan. She also attended The Ohio State University for her bachelor's in Political Science, graduated with honors, and double minored in Human Rights and Developmental Psychology. During her time as an undergraduate student at OSU, Kezia helped to establish the Ohio State Chapter of Leading Women of Ohio, and served as Treasurer and President. She was also very active in the leadership of her local hall council and highly involved in her honors and scholars group, Politics, Society, and Law.

In joining the Groundwork Ohio team, she hopes to grow in her advocacy skills to serve the people of Ohio better.
